Release of Information

ROI Online™ – An efficient ROI

ROI Online is designed for health care providers. When a request for information is received, personnel receive the request, process the request from the requestor, and fulfill the requirements such as logging/tracking, requestor relationship, and patient information. MRO remit the information back to the facility on a monthly basis.

This system enables the provider to manage the release of information process, but outsource the time-consuming processes".

ROI Online includes a state of the art management system called ROI application features a full suite of services that enables both clients and requestors to request 24 hours a day from a
